GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS ADOPTING RESOLUTIONS BY VOTING AT THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 4. Authority to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Authority to convene the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders: The Board of Management convenes the Annual and Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held once a year and within 04 months from the end of the fiscal year. The Board of Management shall decide to extend the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders if necessary, but not exceeding 06 months from the end of the fiscal year.

2. Authority to convene the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders:

a. The Board of Management must issue a notice to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders within 30 days from the date the number of remaining members of the Board of Management, independent members of the Board of Management, or members of the Supervisory Board is as prescribed in Point b, Clause 3, Article 22 of the Company's Charter, or upon receipt of a request as prescribed in Point c and Point d, Clause 3, Article 22 of the Company's Charter;

b. In the event that the Board of Management fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Point a, Clause 2 of this Article, within the next 30 days, the Supervisory Board shall replace the Board of Management to notify the convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Clause 3, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises;

c. In the event that the Supervisory Board fails to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Point b, Clause 2 of this Article, the shareholder or group of shareholders specified in Point c, Clause 3 of this Article shall have the right to request the Company's representative to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Clause 4, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises;

In this case, the shareholder or group of shareholders convening the General Meeting of Shareholders may request the Business Registration Authority to supervise the sequence and procedures for convening, conducting the meeting, and issuing decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders. All costs for convening and conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be reimbursed by the Company. These costs do not include expenses incurred by shareholders when attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, including accommodation and travel expenses.

3. The procedures for organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders shall comply with the provisions of Clause 2, Article 26 of the Company Charter.

Article 5. Chairperson and conduct of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Chairperson and Presidium:

a. The Chairman of the Board of Management shall chair or authorize another member of the Board of Management to chair the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Management. In the event that the Chairman is absent or temporarily incapacitated, the remaining members of the Board of Management shall elect one of them to chair the meeting based on the majority principle. If a chairperson cannot be elected, the Head of the Supervisory Board shall moderate the meeting for the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairperson from among the attendees, and the person with the highest number of votes shall chair the meeting;

b. Except for the cases specified in point a of this clause, the person who signed the notice to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders shall moderate the meeting for the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairperson, and the person with the highest number of votes shall chair the meeting;

c. The chairperson of the meeting has the right to take necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and to reflect the wishes of the majority of the attendees;

d. The chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:

- To require all attendees to undergo inspection or other lawful and reasonable security measures;

- To request competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting; to expel from the General Meeting of Shareholders those who fail to comply with the chairperson's directions, intentionally disturb order, obstruct the normal progress of the meeting, or fail to comply with security inspection requirements.

e. The Chairperson has the right to adjourn a General Meeting of Shareholders for which a sufficient number of attendees have registered for a maximum of no more than 03 working days from the scheduled opening date of the meeting, and may only adjourn the meeting or change the meeting location in the following cases:

- The meeting venue does not have sufficient convenient seating for all attendees;
- Communication facilities at the meeting venue do not ensure that attending shareholders can participate, discuss, and vote;

- There are attendees who obstruct or disrupt order, posing a risk that the meeting may not be conducted fairly and lawfully.

f. Other rights and obligations of the Chairperson as prescribed by current law;

g. The Presidium consists of 03 to 05 persons, including 01 Chairperson and members;

h. Duties of the Presidium:

- A voting ballot without the above characteristics is determined to be a valid voting ballot

b. Election ballots

- Valid election ballot: A ballot using the pre-printed form issued by the organizing committee, without erasures or alterations, without any additional content other than what is prescribed for the ballot; must have the signature and full name of the attending delegate and be submitted to the Vote Counting Committee before the ballot box is unsealed.

- Invalid election ballot:

+ Content does not comply with the regulations for a valid election ballot

+ The number of candidates voted for is greater than the number of candidates to be elected;

+ The ballot has a total number of votes for candidates that exceeds the total number of votes the shareholder or representative is entitled to cast.

Article 15. Voting procedures

1. General principles:

a. The General Meeting of Shareholders discusses and votes on each issue in the agenda. Voting is conducted by raising Voting Cards, direct voting, electronic voting, or other electronic forms.

b. Voting is conducted through votes in favor, against, and abstentions.

c. At the Meeting, the number of cards in favor of the resolution is collected first, followed by the number of cards against the resolution, and finally, the total number of votes in favor or against is counted to reach a decision.

2. Forms of voting:

a. Voting by way of Voting Cards

Shareholders vote by raising their Voting Cards as directed by the Chairperson. When voting by raising Voting Cards, the front of the Voting Card must be raised facing the Presidium. In case a Shareholder/Authorized proxy attending the meeting does not raise their Voting Card in all three rounds of voting (In favor, Against, or Abstention) for an issue, it shall be considered as a vote in favor of that issue. In case a Shareholder/Authorized proxy attending the meeting raises their Voting Card more than once during the voting for In favor, Against, or Abstention for an issue, it shall be considered an invalid vote. Under the form of voting by raising Voting Cards, members of the Vote Counting Committee shall record the delegate code and the corresponding number of voting shares for each option: In favor, Against, Abstention, and Invalid.

b. Voting by Ballot

Under the direction of the Chairperson, Shareholders/Representatives attending the meeting shall fill in their voting options on the Voting Ballot. For each item, the Shareholder/Authorized Proxy shall choose one of the three pre-printed options: "Approve", "Disapprove", or "Abstain" by marking "X" or a ✓ check mark in the selected box. After completing all voting items of the General Meeting, Shareholders/Authorized Proxies shall cast their Voting Ballots into the sealed ballot box at the Meeting as instructed by the Vote Counting Committee. The Voting Ballot must be signed and clearly state the full name of the Shareholder/Authorized Proxy.

c. The application of voting by Voting Card or Voting Ballot for each agenda item of the General Meeting is specifically stipulated in the Regulations on organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 16. Voting Procedures for Elections

1. General principles:

- a. Comply with the provisions of law and the Company's Charter;
- b. Members of the Vote Counting Committee must not be included in the list of nominees or self-nominees for the Board of Management and the Board of Controllers.

2. Forms of voting:

a. Election by cumulative voting method

- Each Shareholder/Representative attending the meeting has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned or represented multiplied by the number of members to be elected;

- Shareholders/Representatives attending the meeting have the right to cast all of their total votes for one or several candidates;

- In the event that additional candidates arise on the day of the meeting, the Vote Counting Committee is responsible for reissuing new ballots to Shareholders/Authorized Representatives and must collect the old ballots before the election proceeds;

- In case of a mistake in selection, the Shareholder/Authorized Representative shall contact the Vote Counting Committee to be reissued a new ballot and must return the old ballot;

- Instructions for filling out the Ballot: The convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders must develop Election Regulations which provide detailed instructions on how to fill out the ballot, and these Regulations must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders before the election is conducted.

- Election principles:

+ Successful candidates are determined based on the number of votes received, ranked from highest to lowest, starting from the candidate with the highest number of votes until the required number of members is reached.

+ In the event that two or more candidates receive the same number of votes for the final position, a re-election shall be held among the candidates with equal votes.

+ If the results of the first round of voting do not yield the required number of members, subsequent rounds of voting shall be conducted until the required number of members is reached.

b. Voting by other methods: In the event that the General Meeting of Shareholders conducts the election by another method, such method must ensure compliance with current legal regulations and be specifically guided in the Election Regulations approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders before the election is conducted.

Article 17. Vote counting and announcement of vote counting results

1. The General Meeting elects the Vote Counting Committee upon the proposal of the Chairperson. The number of members of the Vote Counting Committee shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposal of the Chairperson of the meeting.

2. The vote counting method is conducted by collecting ballots/cards/voting slips in favor of the resolution, then collecting cards/voting slips against, and finally counting and aggregating the number of votes in favor, against, and abstentions.

3. For sensitive matters and if requested by shareholders, the Company must appoint an independent organization to perform the collection and counting of votes.

4. The vote counting results shall be announced by the Chairperson immediately before the closing of the meeting.

Article 18. Conditions for the adoption of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The conditions for the adoption of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders are stipulated in Article 29 of the Company's Charter.

2. This content is stipulated in the Regulations on the organization of the General Meeting of Shareholders and is presented directly at the General Meeting before the voting takes place.

Article 19. Procedures for challenging resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Within 90 days from the date of receipt of the resolution or the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the minutes of vote counting results for collecting opinions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, shareholders or groups of shareholders holding 05% or more of the total ordinary shares have the right to request a court or an arbitrator to consider and cancel the resolution or part of the content of the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

a. The sequence and procedures for convening the meeting and making decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders seriously violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company Charter, except for the case specified in Clause 7, Article 29 of the Company Charter;

b. The content of the resolution violates the law or the Company Charter.

2. In cases where there is a request for the Court or Arbitration to annul a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article, such resolutions shall remain valid and enforceable until the Court or Arbitration decides otherwise, except for cases where interim injunctive measures are applied under a decision of a competent authority.

3. In the event that a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders is annulled by a decision of the Court or Arbitration, the person who convened the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders whose resolution was annulled must finalize the list of shareholders to re-organize the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders within 30 days from the date of the decision of the Court or Arbitration in accordance with the sequence and procedures prescribed in the Law on Enterprises and the Company Charter.

4. Shareholders who voted against the resolution on the reorganization of the Company or changes to the rights and obligations of shareholders as prescribed in the Company Charter have the right to request the Company to buy back their shares in accordance with Article 11 of the Company Charter.

Article 20. Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be prepared, presented, and approved right at the meeting.

2. The content and format of the minutes shall comply with the provisions of Article 31 of the Company Charter.

Article 21. Disclosure of resolutions and minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A representative of the Secretariat presents the draft minutes and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders at the meeting;

2. The Chairperson of the meeting presides over the General Meeting of Shareholders to review and supplement the contents of the draft minutes and resolutions of the meeting, provided that they are not contrary to the voting results for each item discussed;

3. The Chairperson of the meeting presides over the General Meeting of Shareholders to approve the contents of the minutes and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders at the meeting.

4. Resolutions, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the appendix of the list of shareholders registered to attend the meeting, authorization documents to attend the meeting, and all meeting documents attached to the minutes (if any) must be disclosed in accordance with the Company's Information Disclosure Regulations.

5. Closing of the General Meeting of Shareholders:

The Chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders declares the closing of the General Meeting of Shareholders when the following conditions are simultaneously satisfied:

- a. All items on the meeting agenda have been discussed and voted on;
- b. Voting results have been announced;
- c. The minutes and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders are approved.

SECTION 2:

PROCEDURES FOR THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO ADOPT RESOLUTIONS BY WAY OF COLLECTING WRITTEN OPINIONS

Article 22. Collecting written opinions of shareholders to adopt resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Management has the right to collect written opinions of shareholders to adopt resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders when it deems necessary for the interests of the Company, except for the cases specified in Clause 2, Article 23 of the Company Charter.

2. The notice of collecting shareholders' opinions in writing and the implementation regulations must be disclosed in accordance with the regulations on listed company governance.

3. Collecting shareholders' opinions in writing may decide all matters within the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders, except for matters that must be approved by voting at a General Meeting of Shareholders meeting as prescribed by law

Article 23. Order and procedures for collecting shareholders' opinions in writing

The order and procedures for collecting shareholders' opinions in writing shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of Article 30 of the Company's Charter.

SECTION 3:

ORDER AND PROCEDURES FOR HOLDING THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO ADOPT RESOLUTIONS VIA ONLINE CONFERENCES

Article 24. Notice of convening an online General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Management has the right to decide to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders in an online format instead of an in-person format when the Board of Management deems it appropriate or at the request of State management agencies.

2. The Company shall send the meeting invitation notice to all shareholders by a method that ensures it reaches the contact addresses of shareholders attending the online Meeting, accompanied by a document guiding the verification of shareholder status for each shareholder. The Meeting Organizing Committee must notify shareholders of the instructional documents/regulations for registering to attend the online Meeting, electronic voting, and other necessary information in the same manner as the notice of invitation for an in-person General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 25. Procedures for registering to attend the online General Meeting of Shareholders

The procedures for registering to attend the online General Meeting of Shareholders prior to the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders are clearly specified in the Notice of Invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders, including:

1. Participation conditions:

a. Shareholders named in the list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders established according to the Company's notice of exercise of rights.

b. Authorized representatives eligible to attend in accordance with the provisions of law and the Company's Charter.

2. Technical requirements: Shareholders must have an electronic device with an internet connection (e.g., computer, tablet, mobile phone, other electronic devices with internet connection...).

3. Method of recording shareholders attending the online General Meeting of Shareholders:

A shareholder is recorded by the electronic voting system as attending the online General Meeting of Shareholders when that shareholder accesses the system using the login information provided in accordance with Article 25 of these Regulations and has performed electronic voting on any matter within the Agenda of the online General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 26. Provision of login information and execution of electronic voting

1. Information regarding the access link to the electronic voting system, username, access password, and other identification factors (if any) for attending the online General Meeting of Shareholders will be provided in the meeting invitation (or via other forms of login information notification as prescribed by the Board of Management). Shareholders are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of the provided username, password, and other identification factors to ensure that only the Delegate has the right to vote on the electronic voting system and shall be fully responsible for this registered information.

2. When shareholders request re-issuance of login information, the Meeting Organizing Committee may provide notification through: in-person, email/phone. The provision of login information via email or phone shall only be conducted based on shareholder information from the list of shareholders entitled to vote prepared by the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation pursuant to the Company's rights exercise notice.

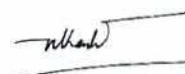

3. Shareholders shall use their username, access password, or other identification factors (if any) to access the electronic voting system and perform electronic voting in accordance with the contents of the online General Meeting of Shareholders Agenda.

4. Shareholders who register to attend the online Meeting after it has commenced may still register and have the right to vote upon completion of registration. The Presiding Board shall not suspend the meeting for shareholder registration, and the validity of matters already voted upon shall not be affected.

Article 27. Authorization of representatives to attend the online General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The authorization of representatives to attend the online General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out in a manner similar to the provisions in Article 10 of these Regulations and sent to the Company via methods that ensure delivery to the Company's address before the opening time of the Meeting.

2. In the event that a shareholder authorizes another individual/organization to attend the online Meeting and perform electronic voting, the shareholder and the authorized person shall be responsible for the authorization and the electronic voting results associated with the provided Access Account.

3. The authorized representative of a shareholder, when attending the meeting, shall exercise the rights and perform the obligations of a shareholder.

4. Notes when conducting online authorization:

a. Shareholders must comply with providing full information to perform online authorization, especially the information of the authorized party: phone number, contact address, and email address. This serves as the basis for issuing the username, access password, and other identification factors (if any) to the authorized party.

b. Validity of online authorization: the authorization shall only be legally valid when the following conditions are met:

- When the shareholder fills in all information according to the online authorization form and completes the online authorization process.

- The authorization letter shall be printed from the online meeting system or using the form attached to the Company's meeting notice or other forms approved by the Organizing Committee, with full signatures, clearly stating the name, and affixed with a seal (if an organization) of both the authorizing party and the authorized party.

- The Company must receive the original Power of Attorney before the official opening of the meeting.

c. Cancellation of authorization for shareholders who have authorized online:

- Shareholders shall send official written requests to cancel online authorization to the Company before the official opening of the General Meeting or cancel the authorization on the online meeting system. Note that the effective time of cancellation shall be counted from the time the Company receives the official written request to cancel online authorization.

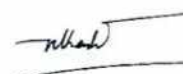

- Cancellation of authorization shall be invalid if the authorized representative has already cast votes/elected on any matter in the Agenda of the online General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 28. Conditions for conducting the meeting

1. Conditions for conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders shall comply with the provisions of Article 12 of these Regulations.

2. The online meeting and electronic voting system must meet the following basic conditions:

a. The system's transmission at the meeting venue must be continuous and stable, ensuring that shareholders' participation is not interrupted. In the event that the meeting is interrupted at the venue, the Presidium must summarize the developments of the content during that interruption;

b. The meeting venue must ensure conditions regarding audio, lighting, transmission, power supply, electronic means, and other equipment as required by the nature of the online meeting;

c. Ensure information security and maintain the confidentiality of System Access Accounts. All information received and provided on the System shall ensure information confidentiality principles and comply with the provisions of the Law on Cyber Information Security;

d. Electronic data of the online General Meeting program must be stored and extractable from the System.

Article 29. Discussion at the online General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Principles:

a. Discussion shall only be conducted within the prescribed time and within the scope of the issues presented in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

b. Only shareholders are entitled to participate in the discussion;

c. Shareholders with opinions shall register the discussion content in the forms specifically prescribed in the Regulations on organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders;

d. The Secretariat will arrange the discussion contents of shareholders in the order of registration and submit them to the Chairperson.

2. Responding to shareholders' opinions:

a. Based on the discussion contents of the shareholders, the Chairperson or a member designated by the Chairperson shall respond to the shareholders' opinions;

b. In case of time constraints, questions that have not been answered directly at the Meeting will be answered by the Company later.

Article 30. Forms of adopting resolutions of the online General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The online General Meeting of Shareholders adopts resolutions within its authority through voting at the meeting via electronic ballots or by collecting written opinions.

2. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on issues as prescribed in Clause 3, Article 3 of these Regulations must be adopted through voting via electronic ballots at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 31. Online Voting Procedures

1. Shareholders may exercise their voting rights through online voting.

2. Online voting procedures:

a. Shareholders use their Access Accounts to log in to the website according to the instructions sent with the Meeting Invitation and/or posted on the Company's website to perform voting;

b. Shareholders decide to vote by checking one of the three corresponding boxes: "Approve", "Disapprove", or "No opinion" for each item requiring shareholder feedback on the System;

c. Shareholders with voting rights are those who have registered to attend the online General Meeting as of the time of voting, and the number of such shareholders shall be the basis for calculating the voting percentage.

d. Subsequently, shareholders proceed to confirm their votes for the electronic voting system to record the results.

3. Other requirements when conducting electronic voting:

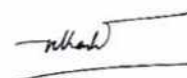

a. In the event that a shareholder does not complete voting or election for all items in the Meeting agenda, the unvoted or unelected items shall be considered as the shareholder not casting a vote or election for those items.

b. In the event that issues arise outside of the sent meeting agenda, shareholders may perform additional voting or election. If a shareholder does not vote or elect on the arising issues, it shall be considered as the shareholder not casting a vote or election for those arising issues.

c. Shareholders may change their voting or election results (but cannot cancel them), including voting or election results for additional matters arising outside the Meeting agenda. The online system only records the vote counting for the final voting and election results at the time electronic voting concludes for each voting session as stipulated in the meeting's working regulations.

d. In the case where shareholders vote by entering numbers, the method of completing the ballot shall be specified in the Election Regulations. These Regulations shall be disclosed and adopted at the General Meeting before the election is conducted.

e. The electronic voting period shall be specifically regulated in the regulations on the organization of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the guidance documents. Delegates may access the electronic voting system to review documents 24 hours a day and 7 days a week, except in cases of system maintenance or other reasons beyond the Company's control. The time at which delegates are entitled to vote/elect on the system shall be stipulated in the Regulations on the Organization of the General Meeting of Shareholders. After the voting period ends, the system will not record any further electronic voting results from shareholders.

f. When presiding over the meeting, the Presiding Board must announce the voting closing time on the System for shareholders to exercise their rights. In case shareholders encounter technical issues with voting on the System, they may contact the hotline number as announced by the Organizing Committee for guidance and support to complete their voting. From the moment the System closes the voting, shareholders have no right to change any voted content; the shareholder's voting results recorded on the System via the Access Account shall be the final results and no complaints or lawsuits related to these results shall be permitted.

4. Voting time

a. Shareholders have the right to vote from the opening of the Online General Meeting until the voting closing time. In case a shareholder has voted but wishes to change their opinion, the change must be made before the voting closing time. The final vote recorded by the System before the voting closing time shall be considered valid and recorded in the vote counting results;

b. Voting results are calculated at the time the shareholder performs electronic voting; therefore, any sudden disconnection of the shareholder's connection (if any) only affects unvoted items, while voted items remain unaffected;

c. Before the voting deadline ends, shareholders can only see their own voting results. After the voting deadline ends, shareholders will be informed of the general voting results for each item as announced by the Presiding Board or the Vote Counting Committee.

Article 32. Online vote counting method

1. The Chairperson shall introduce one or more persons as members of the Vote Counting Committee for the General Meeting to vote on and approve. The Vote Counting Committee has the following rights and obligations:

a. Instructing shareholders on the voting method at the online General Meeting;

b. Conducting the vote counting;

c. Preparing and announcing the vote counting minutes to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

2. Voting is conducted by voting in favor, against, or abstaining. The software system will automatically record and aggregate the number of votes in favor, against, and abstentions.

Article 33. Notification of vote counting results

1. The Vote Counting Committee approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the Meeting is responsible for checking the electronic voting results to aggregate the voting results:

2. Voting results shall be announced by the Presidium or the Vote Counting Committee right at the online General Meeting.

Article 34. Preparation of minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The contents of the online General Meeting shall be recorded by the Secretariat and prepared as minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Article 20 of these Regulations. The time and location of the online General Meeting of Shareholders shall be recorded as the place where the Presidium presides over the meeting.

2. The meeting minutes and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be read and approved before the closing of the online General Meeting.

Article 35. Disclosure of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The minutes and resolutions of the meeting must be disclosed on the Company's website within 24 hours in accordance with current legal regulations.

SECTION 4:

ORDER AND PROCEDURES FOR THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO PASS RESOLUTIONS RESOLUTION BY WAY OF A HYBRID MEETING ONLINE

Article 36. Notice of Convocation of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Company's Board of Management met and decided to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders in a combined in-person and online format, and unanimously approved the meeting's contents and agenda.

2. The procedure for convening an in-person meeting shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of Article 8 of this Regulation.

3. For shareholders attending online: The Company sends invitations to the virtual General Meeting, accompanied by instructions on shareholder status verification, to each shareholder. The meeting organizing committee must provide shareholders with instructional documents/regulations for online meeting registration, electronic voting, and other necessary information before the date of the online meeting.

Article 37. Registration procedures for the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. For shareholders attending in person: Prior to the opening of the meeting, the Company must conduct shareholder registration procedures and must carry out the registration until all present shareholders entitled to attend have completed their registration in the order stipulated in Article 11 of these Regulations.

2. For shareholders attending online: Comply with the provisions of Clauses 1 and 2, Article 31 of this Regulation.

Article 38. Authorization of representatives to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. For shareholders attending in person: The authorization of individuals or organizations to represent them at the General Meeting of Shareholders must be made in writing in accordance with the provisions of Article 10 of these Regulations.

2. For shareholders attending online: The authorization of a representative to attend the online General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of Article 27 of these Regulations.

Article 39. Conditions for holding a hybrid meeting (in-person combined with online)

1. A General Meeting of Shareholders held in the form of a hybrid meeting (in-person combined with online) shall be conducted when the conditions prescribed in Article 28 of these Regulations are met.

2. The online meeting and electronic voting system must satisfy the conditions prescribed in Article 31 of these Regulations.

Article 40. Methods of adopting resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders adopts resolutions within its authority by means of voting at the meeting using voting ballots or electronic ballots, or by collecting written opinions.

2. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on matters prescribed in Clause 2, Article 3 of these Regulations must be adopted by means of voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders using voting ballots or electronic ballots.

Article 41. Voting methods

1. Each share owned or represented corresponds to one voting unit.

2. For shareholders attending and voting in person at the meeting venue: Upon shareholder registration, the Company shall issue to each shareholder or authorized representative entitled to vote a voting card, which specifies the registration number, full name of the shareholder, full name of the authorized representative, and the number of votes of that shareholder.

3. For shareholders attending and voting online through the online system: Shareholders may exercise their voting rights via electronic voting. Electronic voting shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Article 31 of these Regulations.

4. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote on each issue in the agenda. Voting shall be conducted by voting in favor, against, or abstaining.

Article 42. Vote counting method

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or more persons to the vote counting committee upon the proposal of the chairperson of the meeting.

2. The number of members of the vote counting committee shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the proposal of the chairperson.

Article 43. Announcement of vote counting results

The vote counting results shall be announced by the Chairperson immediately before the closing of the meeting; in case the vote counting is prolonged to the following day, the Chairperson is responsible for notifying the attending shareholders of the results on the Company's website, unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 44. Preparation of minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The contents of the online General Meeting shall be recorded and prepared into minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders by the Secretariat in accordance with Article 20 of these Regulations. The time and venue of the online General Meeting of Shareholders shall be recorded as the location where the Presidium conducts the meeting.

2. The minutes of the meeting and the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be read and approved before the closing of the Meeting.

Article 45. Disclosure of resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Copies of meeting minutes and resolutions must be published on the Company's website within 24 hours.

2. The Company must disclose information regarding the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with current legal regulations

4. The Board of Management must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders to elect additional members of the Board of Management in the following cases:

- a. The number of Board of Management members is reduced by more than one-third of the number prescribed in the Company Charter. In this case, the Board of Management must convene a General Meeting of Shareholders within 60 days from the date the number of members is reduced by more than one-third;
- b. The number of Independent Members of the Board of Management decreases and does not meet the required number as prescribed;

c. Except for the cases specified in points a and b of this clause, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect new members to replace the members of the Board of Management who have been dismissed or discharged at the nearest meeting.

Article 51. Notification of election, dismissal, and discharge of members of the Board of Management Changes in the personnel of the Company's Board of Management must be disclosed in accordance with regulations on public company governance.

Article 52. Procedures for nominating candidates for the Board of Management

1. In cases where candidates for the Board of Management have been identified, the Company must disclose information related to the candidates in accordance with Clause 1, Article 33 of the Company Charter.

2. The Company is responsible for disclosing information regarding companies in which the candidates currently hold positions as members of the Board of Management, other management positions, and any interests related to the Company of the candidates for the Board of Management (if any) in accordance with the Company Charter and current laws.

Article 53. Chairman of the Board of Management and Vice Chairman of the Board of Management

1. The Chairman of the Board of Management shall be elected, dismissed, or discharged by the Board of Management from among the members of the Board of Management.

2. The Chairman of the Board of Management shall be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Management within 07 working days from the date of completion of the election of that Board of Management. This meeting shall be convened and chaired by the member who received the highest number of votes or the highest percentage of votes. In the event that more than one member has the same highest number or percentage of votes, the members shall elect one person among them by majority vote to convene the Board of Management meeting.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Management shall not concurrently hold the position of General Director of the Company.

4. The Chairman of the Board of Management has the rights and obligations as stipulated in Clause 2 and Clause 4 of Article 3 and Clause 3 of Article 39 of the Company Charter.

5. The Chairman of the Board of Management shall be dismissed in the following cases:

a. Failure to meet the criteria and conditions to serve as a member of the Board of Management as prescribed in the Company Charter;

b. Submission of a resignation letter which is subsequently approved.

6. The dismissal, election, and removal of the Chairman of the Board of Management shall be carried out upon a decision of the Board of Management. This decision shall be passed by means of voting at a meeting of the Board of Management.

7. In the event that the Chairman of the Board of Management submits a resignation letter or is removed or dismissed, the Board of Management must elect a replacement within 10 days from the date of receipt of the resignation letter or the date of removal or dismissal.

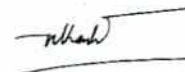

8. In the event that the Chairman of the Board of Management is absent or unable to perform their duties, they must authorize in writing another member to exercise the rights and perform the obligations of the Chairman of the Board of Management. In the event that there is no authorized person or the Chairman of the Board of Management is deceased, missing, detained, serving a prison sentence, serving administrative handling measures at a compulsory detoxification center or a compulsory educational institution, absconding from their place of residence, has restricted or lost civil act capacity, has difficulties in cognition or behavior control, or is prohibited by the Court from holding certain positions, practicing certain professions, or performing certain jobs, the remaining members shall elect one of the members to hold the position of Chairman of the Board of Management according to the principle of a majority of the remaining members' approval until a new decision is made by the Board of Management.

9. The Vice Chairman of the Board of Management shall be elected, removed, and dismissed by the Board of Management from among its members to perform duties as assigned by the Board of Management and the Chairman of the Board of Management.

Article 54. Salaries, remuneration, and other benefits of members of the Board of Management

1. The Company has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Management based on business results and efficiency.

2. Members of the Board of Management are entitled to remuneration for their work and bonuses. Remuneration for work is calculated based on the number of working days required to complete the duties of the Board members and the daily remuneration rate. The Board of Management shall estimate the remuneration for each member based on the principle of consensus. The total remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Management shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting. The payment of salaries, remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits to members of the Board of Management shall be implemented in accordance with the Company's internal regulations on salaries and bonuses.

3. The remuneration of each member of the Board of Management shall be accounted for as business expenses of the Company in accordance with the law on corporate income tax, presented as a separate item in the Company's annual financial statements, and must be reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

4. Members of the Board of Management holding executive positions, or members working on sub-committees of the Board, or performing other tasks outside the ordinary scope of duties of a Board member, may be paid additional remuneration in the form of a lump-sum fee, salary, commission, percentage of profits, or in other forms as decided by the Board of Management.

5. Members of the Board of Management are entitled to be reimbursed for all travel, meal, accommodation, and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as members of the Board of Management, including expenses arising from attending General Meetings of Shareholders, Board of Management meetings, or sub-committees of the Board of Management.

6. Members of the Board of Management may have liability insurance purchased for them by the Company upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders. This insurance does not cover the liabilities of Board members related to violations of the law and the Company Charter.

Article 55. Order and procedures for organizing Board of Management meetings

1. The Board of Management must meet at least once every quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings. Board of Management meetings may be held in the form of in-person meetings, online meetings, in-person combined with online conferences, and/or other forms as decided by the Chairman of the Board of Management or the person convening the Board of Management meeting in accordance with current legal regulations.

2. The Chairman of the Board of Management shall convene a Board meeting in the following cases:

a. Upon the request of the Supervisory Board or an independent member of the Board of Management;

b. Upon the request of the General Director or at least 05 other managers;

c. Upon the request of at least 02 members of the Board of Management.

3. The requests mentioned in Clause 2 of this Article must be made in writing, clearly stating the purpose, matters to be discussed, and decisions within the authority of the Board of Management.

4. The Chairperson of the Board of Management must convene a Board of Management meeting within 07 working days from the date of receipt of the request stipulated in Clause 2 of this Article. In the event that the Chairperson fails to convene the meeting as requested, the Chairperson shall be held liable for any damages caused to the Company; the requester shall have the right to convene the Board of Management meeting in their stead.

5. Notice of meeting and meeting documents of the Board of Management:

a. The Chairperson of the Board of Management or the person convening the meeting must send the notice of meeting at least 05 working days prior to the meeting date. The notice of meeting must specify the time and venue, agenda, and matters for discussion and decision. The notice of meeting must be accompanied by documents to be used at the meeting and voting ballots for members;

c. Meeting documents of the Board of Management shall be sent via email prior to the time of the meeting and shall be updated or replaced until the time of the meeting. Each attending member shall receive one set of meeting documents;

d. The Chairman of the Board of Management or the convener of the Board of Management meeting shall send the meeting notice and accompanying documents to the members of the Supervisory Board in the same manner as to the members of the Board of Management. Members of the Supervisory Board have the right to attend Board of Management meetings; they have the right to discuss but not to vote;

e. The Chairman of the Board of Management or the convener of the Board of Management meeting has the right to invite other participants to the meeting in addition to the members of the Board of Management and the members of the Supervisory Board. These participants shall receive a set of documents relevant to the content they are required to report on and may provide opinions but do not have the right to vote;

6. A Board of Management meeting shall be conducted when three-quarters or more of the total members are in attendance. In the event that a meeting convened in accordance with this clause does not have the required number of attending members, it shall be convened for a second time within 03 days from the scheduled date of the first meeting. In this case, the meeting shall be conducted if more than half of the Board of Management members are in attendance.

7. Members of the Board of Management are considered to have attended and voted at the meeting in the following cases:

- a. Attending and voting directly at the meeting;
- b. Authorizing another person to attend and vote in accordance with the provisions of Clause 11, Article 40 of the Company Charter;
- c. Attending and voting via online conference, electronic voting, or other electronic forms;

- d. Sending voting ballots to the meeting via mail, fax, or email.

8. In case voting ballots are sent to the meeting via mail, the ballots must be placed in a sealed envelope and delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Management at least 01 hour before the opening. Voting ballots shall only be opened in the presence of all meeting participants.

9. Members must attend all meetings of the Board of Management. A member may authorize another person to attend and vote if approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Management.

10. Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Management shall be passed if approved by a majority of the attending members; in the event of an equal number of votes, the final decision shall rest with the side that has the opinion of the Chairman of the Board of Management.

11. Voting:

- a. Except for the cases specified in Clause 2, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises, each member of the Board of Management or an authorized person as prescribed in Clause 11, Article 40 of the Company Charter who is personally present at the meeting of the Board of Management shall have one (01) vote;

- b. Members of the Board of Management shall not vote on contracts, transactions, or proposals in which such member or their related persons have interests that conflict or may conflict with the interests of the Company. Such members of the Board of Management shall not be counted toward the quorum required to hold a meeting of the Board of Management regarding decisions on which such member does not have the right to vote;

- c. When an issue arises at a meeting regarding the interests or voting rights of a member of the Board of Management and that member does not voluntarily waive their voting rights, the ruling of the chairperson shall be final, except where the nature or scope of the interests of the Board member concerned has not been fully disclosed;

- d. A member of the Board of Management who benefits from a contract as stipulated in the Company Charter shall be deemed to have a material interest in that contract;

A member of the Board of Management who directly or indirectly benefits from a contract or transaction that has been concluded or is proposed to be concluded with the Company and is aware that they are an interested party has the responsibility to disclose such interest at the first meeting of the Board discussing the conclusion of this contract or transaction. In the event that the Board member is unaware that they or their related persons have an interest at the time the contract or transaction is signed with the Company, such Board member must disclose the relevant interests at the first meeting of the Board of Management held after the member becomes aware that they have or will have an interest in the aforementioned transaction or contract;

e. Members of the Supervisory Board have the right to attend meetings of the Board of Management and the right to discuss, but not to vote.

f. Members of the Board of Management have the right to object to a decision of the Board of Management, and such objection must be recorded in the meeting minutes.

12. Minutes of the Board of Management meeting:

a. Meetings of the Board of Management must be recorded in minutes and may be audio-recorded or recorded and stored in other electronic forms. Minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese and may additionally be prepared in English, containing the main contents as prescribed in Article 41 of the Company Charter;

b. Minutes prepared in Vietnamese and English shall be of equal validity. In case of any discrepancy between the Vietnamese and English versions, the Vietnamese version shall prevail;

c. In the event that the chairperson or the minutes-taker refuses to sign the minutes, but the minutes are signed by all other members of the Board of Management who attended and approved the minutes and contain all the contents as prescribed in points a, b, c, d, e, f, g, and h, Clause 1, Article 41 of the Company Charter, such minutes shall be valid. The minutes must clearly state the refusal of the chairperson or the minutes-taker to sign. Those who sign the minutes shall be jointly responsible for the accuracy and truthfulness of the contents of the Board of Management's meeting minutes. The chairperson and the minutes-taker shall be personally liable for any damages caused to the enterprise resulting from their refusal to sign the minutes in accordance with the Company Charter and relevant laws;

d. The chairperson, the minutes-taker, and the persons signing the minutes shall be responsible for the truthfulness and accuracy of the contents of the Board of Management's meeting minutes;

e. Minutes of the Board of Management's meetings and documents used in the meetings must be kept at the Company's head office and sent to the members of the Board of Management;

f. In the event that the Company utilizes a software system for document storage, records, and work management, the delivery of meeting minutes shall be carried out through this software system instead of sending hard copies (unless otherwise requested by a member of the Board of Management).

13. Meetings of the Board of Management may be held in the form of a teleconference among members of the Board of Management when all or some members are at different locations, provided that each participating member is able to:

a. Hear each of the other participating members of the Board of Management speak during the meeting;

b. Address all other participating members simultaneously. Discussions among members may be conducted directly via telephone or other means of communication, or a combination of these methods. A member of the Board of Management participating in such a meeting is considered "present" at that meeting. The venue of a meeting held under this provision shall be the location where the largest number of Board members is gathered, or the location where the Chairperson of the meeting is present.

Decisions adopted in a telephone meeting that is duly organized and conducted shall take effect immediately upon the conclusion of the meeting, but must be confirmed by the signatures in the minutes of all Board members attending the meeting.

14. Procedures for adopting resolutions of the Board of Management

Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Management shall be passed if approved by a majority of the attending members; in the event of a tie, the final decision shall rest with the side that has the opinion of the Chairman of the Board of Management.

Article 56. Collecting written opinions from members of the Board of Management

1. The Board of Management has the right to collect written opinions from members of the Board of Management to pass Board resolutions when approving matters within the authority of the Board of Management as prescribed in the Company Charter.

2. A resolution in the form of collecting written opinions shall be passed based on the approval of a majority of the members of the Board of Management with voting rights. This resolution shall have the same validity and effect as a resolution passed at a meeting.

Article 57. Subcommittees of the Board of Management

1. The Board of Management may establish subcommittees to be in charge of development policy, personnel, remuneration, internal audit, and risk management. The term of office, roles, responsibilities, and authority of the subcommittee and each member within the subcommittee shall be specifically stipulated in the Decision on the establishment of the subcommittee.

2. The Board of Management shall decide on the number, structure, standards, appointment, dismissal, and replacement of subcommittee members. The minimum number of subcommittee members is 03, including members of the Board of Management and external members.

3. Operating principles of the subcommittees of the Board of Management

a. The activities of the subcommittee must comply with the regulations of the Board of Management. Resolutions of the subcommittee shall only take effect when approved by a majority of members attending and voting at the subcommittee meeting;

b. The implementation of decisions of the Board of Management, or of subcommittees under the Board of Management, must comply with current legal regulations and the provisions of the Company's Charter and Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance;

c. The subcommittee is responsible for drafting regulations and operating principles of the subcommittee, including detailed provisions on meeting activities, reporting duties and responsibilities, and other matters to submit to the Board of Management for approval;

d. The Head of the subcommittee is responsible for:

- Reporting to the Board of Management on the subcommittee's activities every 06 months (before the Company prepares the periodic corporate governance report) or at the request of the Chairman of the Board of Management or when deemed necessary to report;

- Implementing necessary management measures to ensure the subcommittee successfully completes the tasks assigned by the Board of Management.

CHAPTER VI

PROCEDURES AND FORMALITIES FOR COORDINATION OF ACTIVITIES BETWEEN THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT, THE SUPERVISORY BOARD, AND THE GENERAL DIRECTOR

Article 72. Principles of work coordination

1. The coordination of work between the Board of Management, members of the Board of Management, and the General Director and other executives of the Company shall comply with the following principles:

- a. Always be loyal to the interests of shareholders and the Company;
- b. Comply with the provisions of State laws, the Charter, and internal regulations of the Company;
- c. Implement the principles of democratic centralism, openness, and transparency;
- d. Perform duties with a high sense of responsibility, honesty, cooperation, and proactively coordinate to resolve obstacles and difficulties as they arise.

2. In case of emergency, members of the Board of Management, members of the Supervisory Board, and the General Director may immediately provide information (via face-to-face meeting, telephone, or email) to the Chairman of the Board of Management, the Head of the Supervisory Board, or the General Director for effective coordination and resolution.

Article 73. Procedures and sequence for convening and conducting meetings between the Board of Management, the Supervisory Board, and the General Director

1. The composition of participants for Board of Management meetings shall be decided by the Chairman of the Board of Management. The Board of Management may invite the General Director (if not a member of the Board of Management) or other individuals (Deputy General Directors, Heads of specialized departments/divisions/centers, or heads of relevant branches to attend, report on work, and provide opinions) to attend Board of Management meetings when necessary.

2. The Supervisory Board has the right to attend regular meetings of the Board of Management. For extraordinary meetings of the Board of Management, based on the meeting's content, the Chairman of the Board of Management shall decide on inviting the Supervisory Board or the Head of the Supervisory Board to attend.

At meetings with important content, the Head of the Supervisory Board may invite certain members of the Board of Management, the General Director, and other executives of the Company to discuss relevant issues. The order and procedures for meeting invitations and the conduct of these meetings shall comply with the provisions in the Operating Regulations of the Company's Supervisory Board.

3. Meetings chaired by the General Director:

a. At meetings to review monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, and annual business and production activities, the General Director is responsible for inviting the Chairman of the Board of Management and the Head of the Supervisory Board to attend. In addition, the General Director may invite other members of the Board of Management and members of the Supervisory Board to attend these meetings;

b. In case of justifiable reasons, the Chairman of the Board of Management and the Head of the Supervisory Board may authorize other members of the Board of Management or the Supervisory Board to attend these meetings and must notify the General Director at least 24 hours before the meeting;

c. Except for the meetings stipulated in Point a, Clause 3 of this Article, the General Director may invite members of the Board of Management and members of the Supervisory Board to attend meetings to discuss the contents;

d. The meeting notice must provide full information regarding the agenda, time, and venue of the meeting, accompanied by necessary documents related to the matters to be discussed at the meeting, and must be sent to the attending members at least 03 working days before the meeting is held;

e. The General Director must provide a written notice of the meeting results to the Board of Management and the Supervisory Board within 05 working days after the meeting concludes.

Article 74. Notification of policies and decisions of the Board of Management to the Supervisory Board and the General Director

1. The Company Secretary is responsible for ensuring the full and accurate notification of policies and decisions to the members of the Supervisory Board and the General Director of the Company (who are not members of the Board of Management) simultaneously with the provision to the members of the Board of Management.

2. In the event that the Company utilizes a software system for document storage, records, and operational management, the delivery of the aforementioned documents shall be conducted via this software system instead of hard copies (except where members of the Board of Management, members of the Supervisory Board, or the General Director request otherwise).

Article 75. Coordination between the Board of Management and the General Director

1. The Board of Management is responsible for creating all necessary favorable conditions for the General Director and the assisting apparatus to fulfill their assigned tasks.

2. The General Director is responsible for strictly implementing the Resolutions and Decisions of the Board of Management. During the implementation of the Board of Management' Resolutions and Decisions, if any content is found to be disadvantageous to the Company, the General Director is responsible for proposing that the Board of Management review and adjust it appropriately. In the event that the Board of Management does not adjust the Resolution or Decision, the General Director must still implement it but shall have the right to reserve their opinion (the reserved opinion must be made in writing and submitted to the Board of Management).

3. Upon request by the Board of Management, the General Director is responsible for reporting to the Board of Management on the status of the implementation of assigned duties and powers. The report must reflect the following basic contents:

- a. Directives from the Board of Management;
- b. Implementation progress as of the reporting time;
- c. Implementation efficiency and the causes of the results;
- d. Directions for resolution and specific proposals (if necessary).

4. The General Director and other executives are responsible for creating all necessary conditions for the members of the Board of Management to perform their assigned duties and to access information and reports in a full and timely manner.

5. On a quarterly, semi-annual, and annual basis, the General Director is responsible for reporting to the Board of Management on the business and production performance and the business and production plans for the subsequent period (accompanied by a budget), along with necessary recommendations to perform assigned tasks within their authority. Upon detecting risks or incidents that may adversely affect the reputation or business and production activities of the Company, the General Director must promptly report to the Chairman of the Board of Management and the members of the Board of Management directly in charge of such matters to ensure timely handling measures.

6. The General Director is responsible for seeking the Board of Management' opinions on the contents of the quarterly financial statements, the reviewed semi-annual financial statements, the audited annual financial statements, and relevant explanatory documents before signing for issuance and information disclosure.

7. For matters within the decision-making authority of the Board of Management, the General Director must submit a Proposal for opinions along with relevant documents to the Board of Management. The Proposal for opinions must include the following basic contents:

- a. The matter for which opinions are sought;
- b. The General Director's viewpoint on the matter;
- c. Specific proposals for the direction of resolution.

8. The time limit for the Company's Board of Management to provide directions on the contents in Clause 7 of this Article is determined as follows:

a. For contents on which the Company's General Director seeks the Board of Management' opinions, except for contents where the Board of Management needs to consult professional parties or seek opinions from competent regulatory authorities, the Board of Management shall provide its opinions within 07 working days (from the date of receipt of supplementary opinions, explanations, and clarifications of relevant contents (if any));

b. In case the contents seeking opinions are of an urgent nature, the Company's General Director shall clearly state the proposed deadline for a response so that the Board of Management can consider and resolve it in a timely manner;

c. During the process of reviewing the contents of the General Director's Proposal, the Board of Management has the right to request the General Director to supplement relevant documents and clarify the contents submitted by the General Director for the Board of Management to consider and make a final decision.

9. In cases where directions from the Board of Management are required but there is insufficient time to carry out written opinion-seeking procedures, the General Director may report to the Chairman of the Board of Management in person/via email/telephone and must complete the dossier as prescribed in Clause 7 of this Article within 02 working days from the time of reporting.

Article 76. Coordination between the Board of Management and the Supervisory Board

1. The Board of Management is responsible for cooperating closely and creating all favorable conditions for the members of the Supervisory Board in the process of performing their duties and powers.

2. The Board of Management is responsible for directing and supervising the implementation of the Supervisory Board's recommendations.

3. Members of the Supervisory Board may request the Board of Management to provide information and documents regarding the management and executive operations of the Company, in addition to the periodic reports required to be provided by regulations.

Article 77. Other coordination

1. The Board of Management shall facilitate members of the Board of Management, members of the Supervisory Board, members of the Executive Board, and other executives of the Company to participate in domestic and international training courses, conferences, seminars, and surveys to improve professional qualifications and enhance management and executive knowledge. Participation in the aforementioned training courses and seminars must not affect the general operations of the Company.

2. Members of the Board of Management, members of the Supervisory Board, the General Director, the Person in charge of corporate governance, and the Company Secretary going on overseas business trips must have a specific program, report, and obtain written approval from the Chairman of the Board of Management. Depending on the nature and content of the work, the Chairman of the Board of Management may request relevant officers and employees of the Company to participate.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Management shall decide on domestic business trips for members of the Board of Management, members of the Supervisory Board, the Person in charge of corporate governance, and the Company Secretary according to programs chaired by the Board of Management or the Chairman of the Board of Management.
